

Continuing a Tradition of Giving During the Holidays

Natrona Heights, PA- For the third consecutive year the employees of Metplas Incorporated have teamed up with the Salvation Army and it's Adopt a Family program to bring Christmas gifts to families in need. Two Christmas trees in the Metplas facility were adorned with cards bearing the names of families and their desired gifts for themselves and their children. Typical requests included winter clothing, toys for kids, and of course Pittsburgh Steelers gear for the die-hard Steelers fans of Western PA.

"We are blessed to help these families that are going through difficult times. I am very pleased with the generosity of our employees and it is my hope that our gifts will bring happiness to those families" commented Russ Finsness, President of Metplas.

About the Salvation Army

The Salvation Army, an evangelical part of the universal Christian church established in 1865, has been supporting those in need in His name without discrimination for 130 years in the United States. Nearly 30 million Americans receive assistance from The Salvation Army each year through the broadest array of social services that range from providing food for the hungry, relief for disaster victims, assistance for the disabled, outreach to the elderly and ill, clothing and shelter to the homeless and opportunities for underprivileged children. 82 cents of every dollar spent is used to support those services in 5,000 communities nationwide.
